

BORDER RAIDERS AGAIN ACTIVE

El Paso, Tex., May 12.—Mexican marauders along the border have taken the war trail again following the abrupt termination of the international conference between representatives of the United States and Mexico. Reports of new raids along the boundary line from El Paso to Brownsville trickled in today.

Soldiers in the vicinity of Boquilla had several times on army automobiles and cavalry scouts who had gone across the border brought back news that new bands were forming on the southern side of the Rio Grande.

American troops from Brownsville today were on the trail of the Mexican outlaws who killed Curtis Bayles, a rancher, near that town yesterday. The raiders sneaked in on Bayles' ranch and their victim was killed at the first fire. Members of his family later drove off the attacking party.

From Mexico's interior there also came reports of new anti-American demonstrations. In Chihuahua and Parral Americans have been stoned. Refugees from Guaymas say that radical speakers are allowed to address wild mobs in that section without restraint from Carranza officials.

The American authorities are on the alert for signs of uprising on the border. Since the arrest of Jose Morin, Villa leader, they have been waiting for the first signs of new outbreaks. It is said that Morin's plan was for a concerted movement by Mexicans on the side of the Rio Grande.

These conditions were made known to the state department in Washington as it prepared to take up the work begun by Minister of War Obregon, General Scott and General Fustun in El Paso.

The principal feature of the international conference was that it conducted its negotiations without a fracture of the ostensible friendly relations between the two governments. It seems, however, to have made no change in the attitude of either the Carranza government or American administration.

Now that representatives of both governments have had their palaver on the border, the situation again goes back to an exchange of notes between Mexico City and Washington, which is exactly where it started. As a result of this procedure it seemed likely that the situation would remain in a state of suspended animation.

The "conspicuous courtesy and good will" mentioned in official reports of the conference proceedings was present in outward form at their conclusion. All the principles enshrined in a final handshake.

Obregon returned to Juarez where his private train had been prepared for immediate departure to Chihuahua City, Torreon and Mexico City. General Scott today waited only word from Washington before departure for the capital and Fustun was ready to return to San Antonio. At San Antonio he will be in closer touch with the situation growing out of the Big Bend raids.

From all points through the border states come news of gathering of state guardsmen for patrol duty along the border. Nineteen carloads of New Mexico's militia, including the crack battery from Roswell, passed through El Paso early today.

General Pershing in his field headquarters at Nampqua has been informed of the end of the Scott-Obregon conference. There was no change of orders for him and he continued to strengthen his position all along the line and hold himself in readiness to resist any attack that might come.

LAYMEN UNITE IN DINNER TO CLERGY

Bishops Burch and Hulse of Episcopal Dioceses of New York and Cuba Guests of Honor at Gathering in Hotel Stuyvesant—Church Work on Two Continents.

Episcopal laymen of the archdiocese of Orange turned out Thursday night one hundred strong at their dinner given at the Stuyvesant Hotel in honor of the Rt. Rev. Charles Sumner Burch, suffragan bishop of the diocese of New York, the Rt. Rev. Hiram R. Hulse, Bishop of Cuba, and other prominent members of the clergy and laity of the diocese. Delegations were present from various sections of the country and the gathering was one of the most successful in the history of the archdiocese. Preceding the dinner, an informal reception was tendered the guests of honor at the parish house of St. John's Episcopal Church, Wall street.

The Rev. Charles F. Kennedy, rector of St. John's, presided as toastmaster and in his opening remarks read a telegram of regret from Supreme Court Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck, who was detained by court engagements at Troy. Announcement was also made that owing to the illness of Mrs. Greer, Bishop Greer would be unable to attend. The Hon. Alton B. Parker was also unavoidably detained.

Bishop Burch, introduced as being big in mental as in physical stature, was the first speaker and said that during his Episcopal visitation in this country the past week he had discovered that all roads led to Kingston. In fact, so impressed was he with Kingston that he was not sure but what he would like to for his see city although he did not know which of the churches he would select for a pro-cathedral or which of the clergy for his dean in that instance.

On the serious side of his forceful address, the bishop declared that there was never a time in the history of the Christian world when there was a greater need for a spirit of cohesion and declared that the present was a testing time for religious faith. With old gods crumbling, there was no force at hand other than the church, he said, that was adequate to realize the ideal of the area. "Commercialism," with its competitive system, he declared, was awakening to the fact that the object of education as practised in the past has been self-advancement.

False Ideals Passing. The selfishness of these false ideals was pointed out by the speaker who referred briefly to the world cataclysm in Europe as bearing out this belief, the conditions over there marking the birth throes of a new and higher humanitarianism. Man in the rebound from all great catastrophes of this character has always reached higher levels of spiritual advancement and achievement, said the speaker, who expressed the thought that in all this vast turmoil and upheaval God has a commensurately vast purpose for His children. Christianity he pointed to as a religion of hope and to such gatherings of church men, getting together for the social and moral uplift of their community, he believed it was given to be of greatest service to their church and to their country.

Alexander M. Madden, a member of St. Thomas's parish, New York, and a real estate operator who has gained fame for his work in prison reform for the last 15 years, was the second speaker and he told of the objects and usefulness of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, an active organization of the men of the church designed to extend aid to the church and out. From the organization of the Brotherhood 22 years ago in Chicago down to the present time, the speaker traced its history in most interesting fashion.

Conditions in South America. Latin-America in general and the diocese of Cuba in particular were the subjects of the address by Bishop Hulse, who was introduced by the toastmaster as a native of a neighboring county and a former rector of St. John's Church. Side lights upon the commercial as well as the religious invasion of our sister continent on the south were given by the speaker who styled South America a continent of contrasts. Extremes of civilization, altitude, wealth and climate were pointed out and Bishop Hulse declared that from the business standpoint that now was the especially propitious time to get control of the trade. How the Panama canal is bringing the west coast of South America in direct touch with the east coast of the United States was shown while the education and highly civilized conditions of a large body of people on this continent was cited. At the recent Panama conference, the speaker said that the South American delegates were all familiar with at least three languages, but that those from North America in most cases knew only English. He urged the sending of university trained men rather than statesmen and business men as the first named type were far better adapted for the work in hand of acquainting these people with the real American spirit.

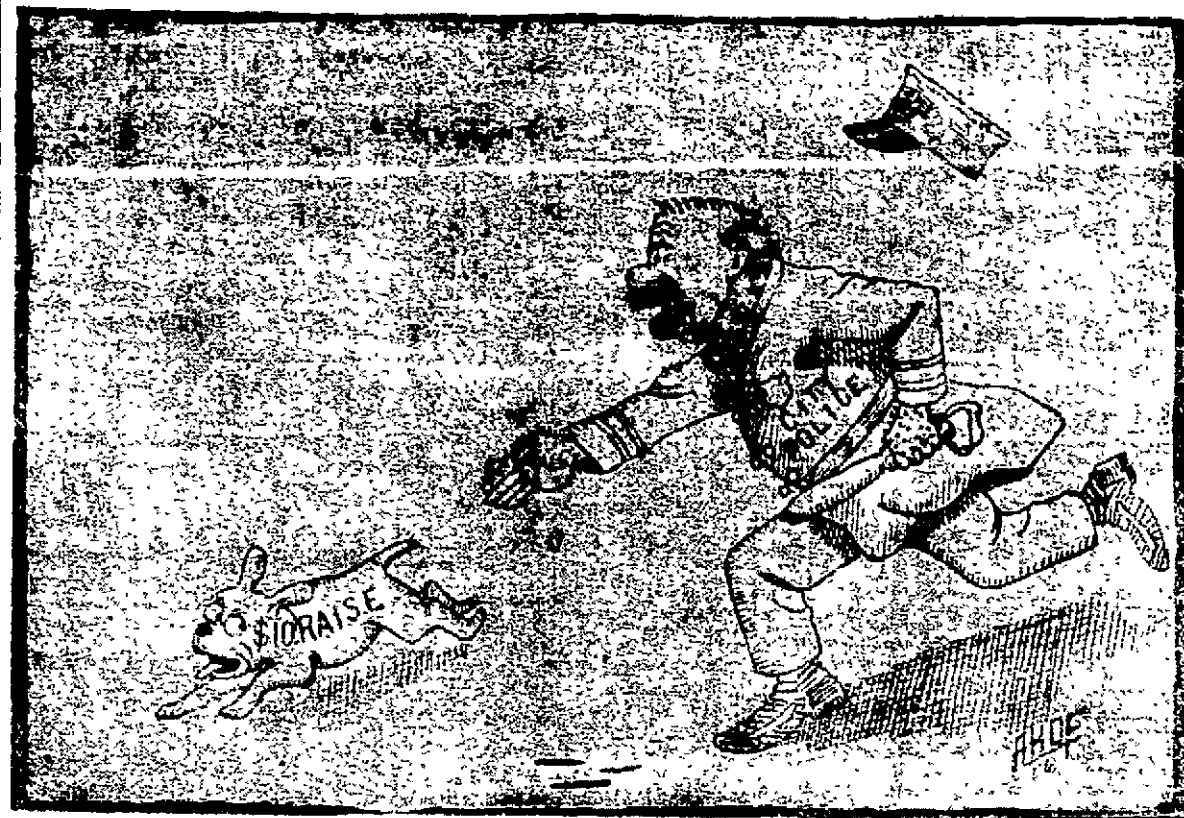

In Cuba, said the bishop, General Wood, Roosevelt and Root are the popular Americans in the order named and he gave intimate pictures of the work within his see and the discouragements and handicaps encountered. In one parish a collection of 21 cents from more than 150 persons brought forth the explanation that the people never had a cent from one year's end to another, being paid in orders and getting all their supplies at the sugar mill stores where they were usually in debt at the end of the year.

Features of Cuban Life. Americans and their lot in Cuba were mentioned and not a specifically happy lot is the condition of many of them. In all there are 10,000 on the island, nearly all lured there by the expectation of easy money which has not been realized in most cases. Insect pests, characteristics of the people and the great work to which the church has set its hand in the Pearl of the Antilles made the concluding features of Bishop Hulse's address.

Attorney Samuel G. Thorn, secretary of the Laymen's Co-operative Missionary Conference in the diocese, was the next speaker and presented some statistics showing progress in China and comparing the work of the laymen and their organizations to some of the activities of large corporations.

CHILDREN MUST ATTEND SCHOOL

Mrs. Teenie Gerlosky of East Union Street Arrested for Not Sending Her Children to School—Case Held Open for One Week.

Mrs. Teenie Gerlosky of East Union street was arrested on Thursday afternoon on the complaint of the school authorities on a charge of failing to send her three children to school, as required by the education law. This morning she was arraigned before Recorder Lang, who decided to hold the case open for one week to give her a chance to obey the law, and she was warned that she must send her children to school in the future.

Mrs. Gerlosky is the mother of four children. Three of them attend School No. 3. They are Freda, aged 11; Edna, aged 9 years, and Ada, aged 5 years. They have not been at school during the past week and the attendance officer went to the house to look up. It developed that the mother works out and during her absence she locks the children up in the house until she returned at night. It seems that she claims to have had some misunderstanding at the day nursery at the Federation House and did not care to send her children there. The four children have been given their dinner and a lunch after school at the day nursery at a very nominal sum. She has also received aid from the Federation House.

Recorder Lang informed her that was no excuse for keeping her children home from school and asked her which she preferred. "Sending the children to school or going to jail?" She said she preferred sending the children to school.

Recorder Lang impressed upon her the fact that the education law must be obeyed and illness of the children was the only valid excuse in staying away from school.

WIEBER DIVORCE GRANTED

Blonde Woman Named Roslyn Nereat the Correspondent.

Supreme Court Justice Hasbrouck has granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Lila James Wieber from her husband Frederick E. Wieber.

The parties were married at Saugerties, where the plaintiff resided, on January 21, 1908, and have one child. They separated about the first of December of 1915, after Mrs. Wieber's discovery of her husband's infidelity. The complaint states that the acts of infidelity occurred between the first of September, 1914, and the first of March, 1916, in this city, and names Roslyn Nereat as co-respondent. The latter was a blonde, who professed to be wealthy, and for a time was studying stenography in this city but is said not to have completed her course of instruction.

Under Judge Hasbrouck's decree, the plaintiff is permitted to resume her maiden name and is awarded the custody of the child.

Mrs. Wieber is a son of the late ex-Mayor Henry E. Wieber of this city and recently his plumbing business was taken over by a referee in bankruptcy.

Virgil E. Van Wageningen represented Mrs. James in the proceedings; Mrs. Wieber was not represented at the trial.

Y., has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of $31,521 and nominal assets of $1,152, of which the larger items are real estate, $25,000; stock, $23,153; accounts, $21,431; notes, $9,952; and interest in property, $1,900. Among the creditors are Hudson River Trust Company of Hudson, $2,775; Emma N. Traver, $25,000; Harriet N. Traver, $8,000; Grace B. Traver, $2,420; and James G. Fuller of Kingston, $5,000.

STREET OILING STARTED TODAY

First Car of Dustoline Received on Thursday—Work of Oiling Streets Started Today—Same Streets Will be Oiled as Last Year.

The first car of Dustoline to be used on the city streets was received by the board of public works on Thursday and the work of oiling was started today by the street department. It is understood that all the streets oiled last year will be oiled again this year.

The work of oiling Abell street is now under way by the Standard Oil Company, who have an automobile distributor at work. The contract for oiling this street was awarded some time ago to that company, with the understanding that the company was to both furnish the oil and spread it.

The warm weather this month has dried the streets to such an extent that when the wind blows it makes it very disagreeable walking, and householders find it impossible to leave the windows of the houses open.

It would not be a bad idea for the city sprinkler to be put to work wetting down the various streets which carry a heavy traffic, especially Broadway and the other paved streets.

WAR PLAYS HOB WITH RAILROADS

Washington, May 12.—The entire structure of American transportation rates—both by land and by water—has been undermined by the European war and the interstate commerce commission is facing a very serious task in attempting to bring some order out of the general confusion now reigning in the transportation world. The new situations developed by the war are:

The congestion of freight cars in the east.

The serious shortage of cars in the west, holding up shipments of food, manufactured and raw materials and generally embarrassing middle western industry.

Demand for railroads for higher rates on commodities which have increased in value because of war orders. In this connection freight rates are usually largely based on the value of the article carried.

The necessity for the establishment of new arrangements for joint rates and through routes to facilitate shipment of war supplies from interior points to the seacoast.

The throwing out of adjustment of the elaborate fabric of rates, carefully woven by the commission to meet conditions of competition by rail and by water from one coast of the United States to the other.

The suspension of coastwise trade due largely to the withdrawal of ships from the coasts and the great lakes for use in the ocean traffic, where higher freight rates are available. This has entailed the establishment of new rate structures to handle the business forced to the rail lines.

These situations require a tremendous amount of work on the part of the commission and that body feels that it will be seriously handicapped unless the bill now pending in congress providing for the enlargement of the commission from seven to nine members, passes.

The transportation rate structure of the United States is so delicately adjusted that the greatest care is required in making any revision, according to members of the commission. A given situation where rates increased traffic, due to war orders, appears to justify a reduction in railroad rates is not cured by an order of the commission authorizing the reduction. The result is, that points other than those involved in the particular case are affected.

Thus, revision of a seemingly limited set of rates usually involves a rate revolution covering an entire region. The inter-mountain rate case, the case involving rates from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois territory to South Atlantic points, the case concerning rates from northern manufacturing cities to the Gulf of Mexico and a score of others pending before the commission will result in all probability in one of the most general rate revolutions the United States has known for many years and possibly, at the close of the European war, peace will bring another change in conditions requiring another radical readjustment.

Chicago Strike Situation

Chicago, May 12.—With 25,000 workers on strike and trouble brewing in half a dozen sections of the city, Chicago police today were confronted with a serious situation. The first open break between strikers and the police came last night, when the officers attempted to disperse a crowd of 500 strikers gathered before the International Harvester Company's plant. Sticks and bricks were thrown indiscriminately and one officer was wounded. Twelve mounted police rode their horses into the crowd with drawn revolvers and clubs swinging. The police succeeded in dispersing the strikers after fifteen minutes fighting.

$20,000 Fire in Atlantic City

Atlantic City, N. J., May 12.—Fire, believed to have been started by boys playing in an empty bath house last night, razed several hundred feet of beach front properties, between Georgia and Florida avenues, inflicting a $20,000 loss. Blown before a strong wind, the flames, originating in the back of a bath house, two doors from Florida Avenue, owned by former Mayor James Bewe of Ventnor, swept up the boardwalk, destroying a row of two story stores and apartments as far as the St. Louis Hotel. The second structure from the corner of Georgia avenue.

HE RAN AWAY FROM LETCHWORTH

Charles Newkirk, Horse Thief, Reported Missing From Letchworth Village Where He Was Committed Last Winter.

Word has been received by the authorities in this office that Charles Newkirk, the New Paltz horse thief, who was committed to Letchworth Village for the feeble minded, had made his escape on Thursday. Newkirk was indicted by the grand jury but after an examination it was found that he was not bright mentally and it was decided best to send him to Letchworth Village. He was later taken there by Mrs. MacMillan.

Automobile Collision

Judge Van Elten's automobile was run into by the Kingston-New Paltz-Rifton stage at the corner of Wall and John streets a few minutes before seven o'clock Thursday evening. After leaving his office, Judge Van Elten proceeded slowly along John street and sounded his horn as he approached Wall street, and also looked in either direction but saw no car approaching. The auto-bus was coming along Wall street from the direction of North Front street at fast speed and Judge Van Elten did not see it coming until his car was on the cross-walk leading from Wood's shoe store to the State of New York National Bank, when he immediately applied his brakes, bringing his car to a stop. The driver of the auto-bus tried to swerve to the opposite side of the street, but the running board of the big bus struck the judge's car a glancing blow, slightly bending the left front wheel and fender. The running board of the bus and also its right rear fender were damaged.

Marlborough's Steam Shovel

A real boom has struck Marlborough, not as new proposition but in the extension of an industry now in operation there. John B. Rose, former senator from Orange county, who owns the sand and gravel deposits on the Haviland farm, has found the demand so great for this special product that he has installed one of the largest steam shovels in the world there. It has a sweep of 170 feet and cost $70,000. Other new machinery has become necessary to care for the rush of orders, and the place is beginning to take on new workers. The Central Hudson Gas & Electric Company is just completing the installation of a special high tension electric service for the concern. The plant will employ about 150 men and will run day and night.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

The man who wins is an average man. Not built on any peculiar plan. Not blessed with any peculiar luck. Just steady and earnest and full of pluck.

Things Worth Knowing.

In hanging out clothes that are apt to be lost because small, pin them with small pins to strips of cloth before going out; then they may be hung quickly with no danger of loss or tearing of delicate embroidery.

When going upstairs place the whole foot on the stair and keep the body erect; this manner of climbing stairs will not strain any muscle unduly.

A harmless laxative and one that the children will ask for is the following: Grind a pound each of dates, raisins and figs with a pound of softened prunes and five cents worth of sauna leaves. Mix well and knead into a loaf, wrap in waxed paper and keep in a cool place. For a child a piece the size of a pecan is sufficient; adults may take a larger piece. This will keep in a cold place for weeks, is entirely harmless and much less expensive than many drugs sold for the purpose.

Hash Roll.—Take two cupfuls of finely chopped meat, one cupful of seasoned mashed potatoes, one-half cupful of toasted bread or cracker crumbs, one large onion, chopped fine, one-half cupful of milk, a dash of pepper and two eggs; mix all the ingredients. Place in a pan whose bottom is covered with a greased paper. When brown roll out like a jelly roll. The eggs will make it light. Garnish with baked tomatoes, or if one prefers, stuffed peppers.

Roast Ham With Cider Sauce.—Soak the ham over night in cold water to cover. Place a kettle with a half cupful each of sliced onions, carrots, two sprigs of parsley, four cloves, one-half a bay leaf; cover with cold water and bring slowly to the simmering point. Cook four hours, or until tender. After two hours, add a quart of cider. Allow the ham to cool in the liquor; skim, sprinkle with sugar and bread crumbs; put in a few dashes of paprika, stick in a few cloves and bake an hour.

Cider Sauce.—Melt three table-spoonfuls of butter, add four of flour and pour on, stirring, two cupfuls of the ham liquor; add a quarter of a cup of cider, pepper and salt to taste. Serve hot with the ham.

ELLENVILLE

Ellenville, May 12.—It is announced to the stockholders and patrons that the Ellenville creamery will hold their opening on Tuesday next at 1 p. m. Speakers are to be present from New York and our own town and address the people. Everybody is invited to inspect the machinery which is the latest. Ellenville is justly proud of this new industry for the town.

The Right Reverend Bishop Burch of New York visited St. John's Episcopal Church on Tuesday evening and confirmed a class of twenty-four persons. Every seat in the church was occupied by an interested person. The address on "Rising Superior to One's Environment," received marked attention. At the close of the service the bishop was given a reception in the parish house, which was attended by three hundred people. It was a most enjoyable affair. Refreshments were served by the ladies and members of the choir. The event commemorated the tenth anniversary of the Rev. H. P. Hobson's rectorship, and the bishop on behalf of the congregation was asked to present Dr. Hobson with an envelope containing a substantial check as a token of their love and esteem. The bishop not only expressed the feeling of the congregation but congratulated Dr. Hobson on having a church that has shown such a substantial growth during the ten years.

Mothers' Day will be observed at the Reformed Church Sunday. There will be special music and sermons in honor of the home and mother. Each person attending the morning service will be presented with a flower to wear in memory and appreciation of mother and the Men's Bible Class will furnish conveyances to and from the services for all the aged who may wish to attend.

There will be a special election of the town of Wawarsing on Monday next at Firemen's Hall in Ellenville for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the town to be voted upon by them by ballot the following question: Shall the town of Wawarsing expend the sum of twenty thousand dollars for the reconstruction and rebuilding of the highway running from a point at or near Main street in the incorporated village of Ellenville along Canal street to the limits of the said village and thence to the dividing line between the county line at a point at or near Dairyland, and issue its bonds in payment thereof? Voting at polls between the hours of sunrise and sunset.

Courage of a Bird.

A curious incident is vouchsafed for showing how bold a robin may become when its food supply is threatened. A lady threw into her garden a boiled potato for the birds, and shortly afterward a robin appeared and began to peck at the food. Soon the robin was interrupted at its meal by a half grown rat, which commenced to nibble the potato. To the surprise of the lady who was watching the proceedings the robin immediately attacked the rat and drove it off. In a little while the rat came forward again, and another encounter took place. The robin once more proving victorious. A third essay was made by the rat, and this also ended in the retreat of the rodent.

The Rival Roses. Perhaps the two most famous flowers in history are associated with the Temple gardens. For according to tradition, it was in the gardens in 1470 that the two leaders plucked the red and white roses which became the badges of the rival houses of Lancaster and York.

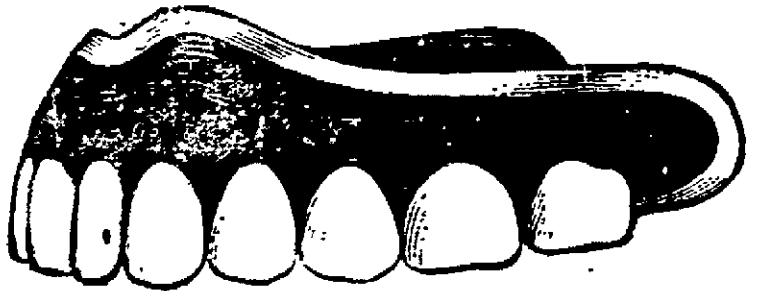

The gardens were for centuries famous for their roses. Among their floral curiosities one finds in the accounts for 1700 an expenditure on two perimic box trees and wonders what a perimic tree is until one remembers the custom of trimming box trees in a symmetrical or "perimetric" fashion—London Chronicle.

Business. "What you need," said the doctor after giving his father a thorough examination, "is to get out in the open air more than you do. Take a long automobile ride every day."

"But I haven't got a car," objected the patient.

"That's all right, I'll sell you mine,"—Pittsburgh Press.

Around the Next Bend. You gave me the glorious advice not to waste life, which must be lived, by killing time, making him die a dull death at bedtime every night, but to run hand in hand with him—run wherever he might be going—because things worth while might be ready to happen around the very next bend of the future.—From "Where the Path Breaks," by Captain Charles de Crespigny.

The "Clubby" Smoke

You start something lively when you produce "Bull" Durham in a crowd of live wires and start "rolling your own." Short Change!

It amounts to about the same thing when a storekeeper substitutes an inferior article for a standard brand.

He is hurting the reputation of the manufacturer who has put character into his goods, and spent money to advertise the name.

He is doing an injury to the customer, and through his own shortsightedness he is weakening his own position in the eyes of his customer.

Reputable and far seeing merchants do not indulge in the substitution practice.

When you see an article advertised in this newspaper, and it is the kind of an article you want, ask for it by name.

Go to a good store and you will get what you ask for.

"Swat a Fly and Save a Life!" Is A Good Slogan

If every child and adult American were today to adopt the slogan, "Swat a fly and save a life!" the health bulletins issued next summer from the various sanitary boards throughout the country would have sparse reference to such causes of death as cholera infantum, typhoid fever and the numerous infantile maladies of the torrid months.

If you wait until spring or summer to kill your ubiquitous fly it will be too late. The single isolated fly that survives the frigid of winter and the vigilance of the housewife, the insect that lies hidden in the rafters of your cellar and pantry, "swat, swat, swat" is the villain who breeds multitudes of baby flies upon the arrival of spring.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL BE HERE AGAIN

Has Secured All But a Few of the 120 Guarantors Needed—Influential Friends Have Promised Support and 1916 Chautauqua Practically Assured.

Thursday a campaign to secure the needed 120 guarantors for Kingston's 1916 Chautauqua, resulted in obtaining all but a few of the necessary number, and one of the guarantors said this morning that influential friends have promised support to the project, and that Kingston is practically assured of holding its fourth Chautauqua next year.

The plan for securing guarantors for next year which has been adopted is much more fair to the guarantors in every way. Every guarantor becomes personally responsible for only five tickets at $2 each, or $10. This means that the guarantor pledges himself or herself to pay Chautauqua $10 and then can dispose of his five tickets as he sees fit, either in selling them to his friends or giving the tickets away.

Those who care to become guarantors can do so by signing the contract and should get in touch with either Mrs. Sam Bernstein, Mrs. C. Snyder, Superintendent M. J. Michael, Lester E. Decker, Dr. C. B. Cragin or Dayton Murray.

SECRETS OF A GUN

The Famous French 75 and Its Wonderful Mechanism.

IT HAS TWO HIDDEN DEVICES.

These Are the Fuse Setter and the Recoil Absorber, and They Make This Wonderful Weapon a Most Fearful Engine of Death and Destruction.

What is a 75? By this is conversationally understood a French field gun, the caliber, or interior diameter of the bore, of which is seventy-five millimeters. Incidentally it is the finest man killing machine the world has yet known.

In 1895 France surprised the armies of the world by the introduction of an artillery weapon which till then had only existed in the dreams of experts. Till this period the slowness of artillery fire was due to the fact that after the gun was laid and fired the shock of discharge so upset the aim that the gun had to be readjusted for a second shot. The rapidity of fire thereupon became a matter of how quickly and accurately a gun could be laid by the personal skill of the layer. The French, seeking artillery progress and confronted with the inexorable shortness of their conscripts' period of training, sought to improve in mechanism what they could not improve in personal skill.

Briefly, the new French field gun of 1898 ceased to be attached to its axle-tree, but was attached instead to a buffer in a cradle, which not only absorbed the shock of recoil, but ran back the gun so exactly into its former position that no second laying was necessary.

The primary trouble of laying having been got over, rapidity of fire appeared to have been attained. Experiments then proved that, though a rapid rate of fire was possible, this rate was only as fast as that at which the gunners could adjust the fuses of the shells.

How now improve the rate of fuse setting? This task was and is a matter of meticulous accuracy, needing careful training to be done correctly. Moreover, it could not be hurried, since a shell badly fused by ever so little was not only innocuous to the enemy, but was a danger to one's own side. Once more the French put aside any idea of bristling up the personnel and invented a machine to set the fuse. The details of this fuse setter are still a secret. Let it suffice that it is simple, accurate and very rapid in its work. Thanks to it and to the steadiness of the gun after each discharge, the French field gun is easily capable of twenty-five aimed rounds a minute. One more word about the recoil absorber and the secret thereof. The recoil is taken up by a cylinder beneath the gun, which contains a combination of glycerine, compressed air and springs. It is this combination and the exact proportions thereof which make the secret of the gun. It is not even ascertainable from a captured gun, since if you take a cold chisel to it and try to examine the works by opening the boiler the compressed air escapes, and the secret which lies in its density evaporates with it.

Having solved the question of the rate of fire you would have thought that the French would have been content. Not they! Range and accuracy were successively taken in hand. Muscular velocity, which, after all, means range, was increased not by increasing the charge and with it the thickness of the gun that withstood it, but by lengthening the gun to a hitherto unheard of extent and giving it a slow burning propellant.

The temptation to put in a lighter shell and so get it farther on the same bang was successfully resisted. The designers never lost sight of the fact that the primary object of the gun was to deliver death to its enemies at the greatest speed, range and effectiveness possible. So they concentrated their energies on a man killing shrapnel which in the end weighed sixteen pounds and left the gun on its long journey at the unprecedented pace of 1,739 foot-seconds.

And there you have the present shrapnel. Tactics here began to get mixed up with mechanics and ballistics. It was pointed out that troops would not always remain in the open to be whiffed out of existence by shrapnel. Rather would they get under cover at what speed they might. So a shell to deal with entrenchments, buildings and fortifications was indicated. Here again careful thought showed the need of accurate gunnery and a still higher velocity in the shell which, being more local in its effects, could not be allowed the same latitude in its action as its shrapnel confrere.

So a high explosive shell weighing only 11.08 pounds was introduced. Thanks to the chemists this time, its contents were of such a startling nature that its weight became a secondary consideration. It raced away on its mission at a velocity at that time unequalled even by the latest small bore rifle, and when it exploded its melinite charge blew great holes in the scenery. — Ponsse Calhoun in Blackwood's Magazine.

Are You Wasting The Price Of a Titan Engine?

TITAN engines run on kerosene. Average cost of gasoline so far this year, 16.9 cents per gallon. Average cost of kerosene 7.7 cents per gallon. Gasoline costs over 100 per cent more than kerosene. Gasoline is going up steadily. Kerosene is not. At present fuel prices Titan engines, using kerosene, save their owners about 3 cents per horse power per hour.

Are you running a gasoline engine? What horse power is it? Figure what you'd be saving if you had a Titan kerosene engine. Rather surprising, isn't it? How long would it take that saving to pay for a Titan engine of the same size?

HIGHLAND.

Highland, May 11.—Last week and this also seems to be the annual event of spring house cleaning and it seems most everyone now days takes their cleanliness as an everyday sort of thing and try to avoid explosive spells and so the Auxiliary Club people just gave a work last Thursday and at half past 2 we saw a great many women walking up Milton avenue and White street and all stopped at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Gedney, and we asked what was going on and received the reply that it was ladies' day and Mrs. B. Gedney was hostess to the club, of which she is a member. Reporter was informed there were 40 members present and several guests. Everyone was made to feel at home and they told us they were glad they went for when business was taken up there was plenty of it. There was a fine report from the chicken supper and sale and all other committees gave in satisfactory records. They made plans in regard to some affairs for the missionary convention, which will be held this Friday through day and evening and there will be few other church affairs that will come on from time to time which will keep all busy. The motion regularly made and seconded to adjourn to social hour came very acceptable after some time spent in business transactions and everyone present said the refreshments that were served then were delicious and they were greatly appreciated. And after visiting for some time it seemed impossible to believe it was late and time for all to go home, and it seemed more impossible to account where the time had gone, but at these meetings everyone seems to have the best time imaginable and always anxious for the first of each month to go and help out with business and social affairs. All expressed their pleasure to Mrs. Gedney as they left for the very pleasant afternoon spent in her new home with her and members of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilcox have been spending several days in Danbury, Conn., with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bickert. They had a delightful time.

Mrs. Maude Adams has returned from New London, and we hear will spend some time at her home in this place.

Jerome Pratt was in Poughkeepsie on business Monday.

We see A. Winthrop Williams has purchased a Ford runabout. We presume he will just spin now.

The U. D. Society were very pleasantly entertained last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Egbert Van Wazer. After the business she served delicious refreshments.

Philip Schantz and son spent a few days the past week with friends in Amsterdam, and reports a delightful time.

George Froer has been in New York city for a few days.

On Tuesday evening the Sunday school held their annual election of officers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Metcalf.

Last Thursday evening the high school students here had a grand time. They gave a very interesting program of recitations and music, which was greatly enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic audience.

Mrs. Stowe had as her guests Monday evening the Queen Esther Circle. They had a very fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Snoddes entertained as their guests the past week Miss B. Everts of Gardiner.

Mrs. William C. Perkins has returned home after spending some time in Fairwood, N. Y., visiting her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Tabor.

Another new firm to locate in Highland will be the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company. They are going to open the middle of the month in the Dr. Reed building. Hope there will be few more outsiders come along. We have plenty of stores now to patronize. Home trade is the best.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Aldrich left last Saturday for a visit with friends in Grahamsville. They returned Sunday evening and had a delightful time.

Mrs. J. B. Monte at the "Pines" will soon have one of the boat crews, as the races take place in June. The boys will all soon be here, for they have to practice a great deal to be in trim for the affair.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY'S BUILDING.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS SEE HELLO PLANT

Just what happens between the transmitting and receiving ends of their respective telephones was explained in details Thursday afternoon to 21 directors of the Chamber of Commerce who made another of their "little journeys," this time to the New York Telephone Company's handsome building on Broadway. Heretofore the directors confessed to having had only a speaking acquaintance with the system but today several of them were interested in the fact that they now know the telephone business, and "Central" as well, by sight.

Beginning in the cable room on the base floor a complete inspection was made in the various departments. The methods of receiving calls, making and breaking connections were shown in detail. The causes for that occasional buzz in the ear and the reasons why Central shunts subscribers on to information when they have some simple question to ask were all explained. Some of the visitors who watched the switchboard in operation wondered how the young women kept up their good nature, or at least conveyed a polite tone through the transmitters.

How substituting "number please" for "hello" has saved the company billions upon billions of minutes time in a year and other economies of operation were all explained. Miss M. E. O'Reilly, chief operator, with her assistants exhibited the workings of the call system. Local Manager R. D. Clearwater, District Manager Willis Hills, Traffic Chief George U. MacNabb, Assistant Chief J. E. Day, General Foreman Stanley White, District Wire Chief Thomas White and Wire Chief L. H. Julian and Assistant Edward McLean acted as an escort for the visitors.

Souvenir paperweights in the form of glass bells were given the guests together with an illustrated booklet on the telephone entitled, "The Eleventh Hour." The inspection was most instructive to the Chamber directors who gained some idea of the volume of business done in the Kingston exchange together with the extent of the equipment and investment designed to meet local and long distance requirements.

THEY SAY.

As two out-of-town men, who were evidently traveling over the country and "seeing America first," boarded a trolley car in Rondout the other day they began discussing the various sights they had seen. As the car approached the central part of the city the new high school came into view. Said one, "a school building and a mighty fine one too." "Yes," said the second, "that is about the finest school structure I have seen in the east and surrounded by that magnificent lawn this city should be proud of the school." As the car approached the West Shore crossing and the car was detained for considerable time as a long freight slowly meandered by, what they said could not be heard but the look upon their faces was sufficient.

A man tried to sell a longskirted overcoat at a fair street tailor shop Thursday and thereby hangs a tale. A police officer happened along and questioned the individual and took him to a nearby hotel until he could test the stories as to how the man came in possession of the garment. In the interval the busy street laid got wind of the story and before long a chase of three blocks had been added with the capture of a desperate and determined criminal. Within a matter of minutes the police officer's forces had been asked to lend assistance and just as the B. S. L. was getting his second wind, the officer came out of the hotel with his man and turned the latter loose, being satisfied that the coat had been given to the man. And so another yarn went wrong.

The presence of two elderly women in court room during the trial of the Ellenville slander suit in which a saloonkeeper was the plaintiff was a source of considerable speculation to other spectators. It being claimed that the women were members of the W. C. T. U. or some other temperance organization and were looking for information as to methods of "treating" and treatment given boozers. The report could not be verified as the women did not appear after the closing arguments and submission of the case to the jury.

Special co-operation of the police authorities will be asked by the Seneca House trustees this season in an effort to prevent acts of vandalism on the grounds. It is planned to make an example of the first offender detected in defacing any of the property in the vicinity or interfering in any way with the shrubbery or flower beds. Next week through the generosity of Mrs. Edward Cockendall flower beds and shrubbery will be placed along the walk leading to the Senate House from Fair street and an effort made to beautify the grounds, which have been long neglected. It is planned to make the flower beds near the Senate House itself appropriate to the period that the building represents and probably something in the nature of an old Dutch garden will be eventually reproduced here. In order to protect the grounds from boys and others who might steal some of the plants or shrubs, the city authorities will be urged to exercise extra vigilance in an effort to permanently stamp out these mischievous practices.

Gale in the Adirondacks.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Utica, May 12.—The worst gale in many years is sweeping the full length of the Fulton Chain of lakes in the Adirondacks. With the exception of the larger boats there were no craft on any of the lakes today. Throughout the mountains trees are being uprooted and lines of communication destroyed while highways in many sections of the Adirondacks are blocked by toppling trees and telephone poles. Considerable damage to cottages along the shores of the Fulton Chain lakes has been caused by the waves which are being rolled up by the 50 mile an hour

ST. PETER'S CHURCH BUYS "LONG HOUSE"

Well Founded Rumor That the Building on Lower Broadway has been Sold—Building Will be Torn Down—Has a Great History.

It is understood on what seems reliable authority that the famous old "Long House" on Broadway at the corner of West Pierpont street has been purchased by St. Peter's Church, who, it is understood, will tear the old building down. Just what will be done with the site is unknown.

The "Long House," as it was familiarly known, was built many years ago, and while repairs have been made from time to time, it has always been considered an eyesore to lower Broadway, and residents in that vicinity will be glad to learn that the building will be demolished. Since the death of the late Maurice Murphy, the last man to own the property, there have been a number of rumors about regarding the final disposition of the building.

Some time ago the tenants in the building were notified that it would be wise to look for other quarters as the building would be sold to settle up the Murphy estate, and since then many have moved out. At the present time but a few families still reside in the building, and it is likely they will be given a very short time in which to vacate.

The "Long House" has long been a source of trouble to the police by reason of the many fights and numerous bickerings between the tenants and there has hardly been a year that passed without several squabbles being brought to the attention of the recorder in recorder's court. It has been occupied by both

It should not be understood, however, that all of the tenants have not lived in peace and good will with their neighbors for such is not the case.

The "Long House" since it was built has changed owners several times.

Stopped Runaway Horse.
While on his way to work this morning, Eugene B. Carey, of the William C. DeWitt insurance agency, stopped a runaway horse attached to a light delivery wagon on the Strand. The driver had been delivering goods at one of the Strand business houses and in jumping on the step of his wagon frightened the horse, which started to run. The driver was thrown to the street. Mr. Carey was some distance up the street and saw the horse start. He ran into the street and waved his arms until the horse shied to one side just as he reached him. Whereupon Mr. Carey ran alongside the horse's head until he could get hold of the bridle and bring the animal to a stop.

SHARP UNDERPRICING AT THE NEW STORE OF JACOBSON BROS.

If some bank should advertise that it had a special lot of gold dollars, made for that institution, and that it would sell them at 50c each, you wouldn't believe it. You would consider the offer spurious and look upon it with suspicion. But many people accept a similar statement from some clothing dealer and gladly pay his price for a suit on the theory that "clothes is clothes."

In the clothing we sell at $10, $15 and $19.75 there is every dollar's worth of value you pay for—and much more. You get more service and more satisfaction than a "cheap" suit could possibly give you.

Our clothes are up to standard style quality.

SOLDIERS' HEADSTONES.

Supervisor Woolsey Sends a Letter From Congreman Ward.

Milton, May 12, 1916

To Editor of Freeman: The county of Ulster has been paying for headstones for deceased soldiers for many years; now I see by communication which I send you, that the national government will provide stones free. If you will please publish the following communication from our representative in congress, it will be the means of saving our county much expense.

C. M. WOOLSEY
House of Representatives U. S.
Washington, D. C.
February 14, 1916.

My Dear Sir:

I am informed by the Quartermaster General of the United States Army that upon application to him headstones will be furnished for unmarked graves of soldiers, sailors and marines as well as the army or navy of the United States during any war or insurrection (including the Revolution), whether regular or volunteer and whether they died in the service or since their muster out or discharge therefrom.

These headstones are of best American white marble, thirty-nine inches long, twelve inches wide, and four inches thick, the top slightly rounded, and the portion of the stone which will be above ground when set in sand-rubbed, each headstone is inscribed with the name, rank (if above private), company and state regiment or other organization, to which the deceased soldier belonged, cut in relief within a sunken shield. No deviation can be made from these specifications, which are prescribed by the secretary of war, and the law does not provide for any expenditures for fences or for any other purpose except for the headstone as above described. No allowance is made in lieu of furnishing headstones.

If there are any such unmarked graves of soldiers in your vicinity at which you believe a government headstone should be erected I would appreciate it if you would write me so that I might have the proper application blank forwarded to you for making the request.

In each instance it should first be ascertained whether or not the relatives of the soldier desire a headstone or whether they intend to erect a private monument.

Assuring you that it will give me great pleasure to be of all possible service to the members of your Post and with highest respect I remain,

Yours very truly,

RUMORS OF ANOTHER MASSACRE IN TEXAS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Marathon, Tex., May 12.—A report was current in Sanderson, Tex., this afternoon that forty Americans, including women and children, were killed by Mexican bandits last night in a raid across the international boundary near Brownsville, Tex. Word of the report was brought here at noon by Rufus Stirling, a United States customs official. Stirling said that a cattleman at Sanderson in whom he has implicit faith, claimed to have received a telegram from Brownsville conveying news of the raid but containing no details. Sanderson is sixty miles due east of this place.

Against Colored Vinegar.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Albany, May 12.—The decision of the trial court that vinegar which is artificially colored with burnt sugar must not be sold nor offered for sale, was affirmed by the court of appeals today. The agricultural law provides that vinegar shall not be artificially colored, and inspectors of the department of agriculture took samples of this commodity in the possession of Adolph Schmidt and it was alleged that analysis showed that it was colored with sugar. In this instance, the vinegar was imported. Judge Pound wrote the opinion of the court.

Marimba Records A Musical Novelty

THE instant, widespread success of the first Columbia marimba records proved the popularity of this novel form of musical expression. The ringing clearness of the higher notes, the deep, booming bass of the lower, the tremendous resonance of this instrument give a new and interesting quality to even familiar music. These records are splendid reproductions of the power of marimba tone:

- A1936 10-inch 75c THE MODEST SUSANNA Royal Marimba Band
- THE FLAG OF GUATEMALA Royal Marimba Band
- A1906 10-inch 75c NATIVE OF VIENNA WALTZ Royal Marimba Band
- HERRERIN TWO-STEP Royal Marimba Band
- A1880 10-inch 75c JULIA WALTZ Royal Marimba Band
- GUATEMALIAN GIRLS MARCH Royal Marimba Band

Columbia Records are consistently first with the musical novelties and hits of the day. You could hear the music of the marimba shortly after Hurtado Brothers introduced it at the Frisco Fair. And you can hear today at Columbia dealers the hits that are sung everywhere today. "All the hits while they are hits" is the Columbia policy.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, May 12.—The graves in the pugilistic churchyard have opened and many of their former inmates are stalking around sporting dens at the live ones. As they wriggle in their shrouds, they shout that they are "as good or better than the joke fighters of today," and brandish their skeleton fists as exhibit A.

Jim Barry, who was stroke oar in George Washington's boat when it crossed the Delaware, is most conspicuous among the resurrected. Pugilistically dead and buried for many years, Jimmy arises and jibbers about being able to dispose of a few of the heavies. He is browsing around now in search of matches, while the grave yard keepers are searching for their missing charge.

Tommy Burns, a great fighter in that period preceding the Christian Era, "came back" a short time ago, beat a joke warrior, and now thinks that with a little training he can go right out and whale consciousness out of Jess Willard. And then there's Carl Morris, the first "White Hope." Beaten so often and so decisively by "The Great White Hope" so ago. But the smell of the resin and the lure of the gold were too powerful—and Carl is back.

Enter Wolgast and Attell.

Ad Wolgast, wallowed time and again by second raters, still insists that he can beat Freddie Welsh and spends most of his waking hours trying to force him into a fight. The same thing goes for Johnny Coulton, once time bantam titleholder. Johnny is old, a flabby 20, and his once time iron-like endurance is gone. But Johnny is sure that right now he could whip easily either Kid Williams or Kid Ertle.

The presence of the gentle spring-time has effected Abe Attell, too. The old king of the feather years for "Just one more fight." And he wants it to be against Benny Leonard, the best lightweight in the game today. Ol' Vol!

Billy Papke, who won the middleweight championship from Stanley Ketchell—and then lost it back again—wants to fight again. He's been out of the ring for a long time, but taking it from Billy, he's quite capable of putting away a lot of the "middleweight shiners."

Now if some one will please page David, who won the championship from Goliath, Alexander, world's champion some centuries ago, and Napoleon, the roster of pugilistic ghosts will be complete. Then let us have a battle royal between the phantoms.

Packy Restless.

Packy McFarland also has heard the blare of the trumpet of ringdom's Gabriel. The Chicagoan announced after his fight with Mike Gibbons last summer that he was through with the game for all time. But now Packy wants to return long enough to take a few swats at Jack Britton, the so-called welterweight champion. Britton claims the championship over Ted Lewis. Packy insists Britton's claim to the championship is not warranted by his record. Packy wants to fight Britton to prove that he is better than the New York "champion."

Now Packy longs to retire with some sort of championship. He couldn't force Ritchie or Welsh into the ring with him in a decision bout before he outgrew the lightweight limit. Now he is picking on Britton with the hope of meeting and then beating him and thus acquiring a crown.

Good Work on Abel Street.

The street force is busy oiling and topdressing Abel street with a thin coat of gravel. The oil is being applied by a large motor truck which is immediately followed by men who apply the fine stone. The manner in which the work is being done leaves very little uncovered oil for the wagon or automobile to drive through and where the stone has been applied the road is in a fairly dry condition and but little oil is picked up by passing vehicles. With the large amount of traffic which passes over this street the gravel will be packed down and hard in a day or two.

HIGH SCHOOL GAME HERE SATURDAY

The Kingston high school baseball team received word this morning from Catskill that it will be impossible to secure grounds at that place for the game which was scheduled for Catskill tomorrow, and arrangements have therefore been made for playing the game at the athletic field in this city. The game will be called at 2:45 o'clock.

Tomorrow's game, which is the second of the season, promises to be one of the best of the season. Catskill has a stronger team than Saugerties, which Kingston has defeated, 10-7, and which Catskill also has defeated by 7-3. A close game is expected because Kingston will be compelled to put in several substitutes on account of some of the regular players being ineligible.

Hot Hitters.

(By Frank G. Menke.)
The Pirates are going down very fast.

Of the eight games played yesterday six of them were decided by one run.

Three straight for the Giants, Selah!

Jealous of the Tigers' big score of 16, the Rochesterers went them one better.

The world champions sent in the winning run in the tenth. It was a fake win. The wind carried a foul ball hit.

The Yanks staged another ninth inning finish, scoring the winning run over the White Sox after two were out.

Boehling had to pitch shut-out ball for the Nationals to beat the Braves.

The Cubs took the scalp away from the Braves, but it was a close call.

The Dodgers lost. But they were not disgraced. It took 13 innings to beat them.

The Phillies can hit, but not at the right time, hence the Cards won.

The Athletics got back at the Brooklyn Tigers and trimmed their claws in the ninth.

INCREASED WAGES IN LACE INDUSTRY

Amalgamated Lace Operatives of America concluded the business of their annual convention Wednesday at Measter's Hall and the delegates left on afternoon trains for their homes. Business matters pertaining to the craft occupied the session until adjournment.

Resolutions were passed expressing appreciation of the entertainment extended by Kingston Local and the delegates all expressed themselves most heartily upon the beauties of the scenery in the city and vicinity. The discussions in the convention did not touch upon the matter of wages. It is understood, as the operatives in the lace factory in this city and in the country as well are just now receiving the increase in wages granted three weeks ago by the manufacturers. The men had asked ten per cent but a seven and one-half per cent tilt was agreed upon and the subject of wages did not come up at this convention.

Gregory and Company were given thanks for the use of a graphophone while the press of the city was complimented for its reports. New York city was fixed upon as the place for the next convention which will be held in May, 1918.

Minstrels This Evening.

The annual minstrel show of the Young Men's Brotherhood of the Evangelical Lutheran Church will be given this evening at St. Peter's Hall at 8:15 o'clock. The show this year promises to outdo the excellent show given in former years and in anticipation of an unusually large number attending extra seats have been provided in order that the audience may be seated comfortably. The jokes are new, bright and snappy while Ralph Mann will appear in his balancing act. A one act comedy sketch will introduce a number of Kingston's vocalists and will be appreciated by all music lovers. Following the performance refreshments will be served and an orchestra will provide music until 1 o'clock.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Very Attractive Design.

1581—Costume for misses and small women (with sleeve in either of two lengths).

Mixed suiting in green and brown tones was used for this style, with trimmings of brown and braiding in green. The design is unique in its detail and finish. The fronts show a smart vest, topped by an over-vest or chemise. The back and side fronts are gathered below yoke portions. The sleeve is loose, and finished with a shaped cuff, at wrist-length. In short length it has turn-back cuff. The skirt flares with fashionable fullness, and is fitted with plaits at the sides, in front and back. Pointed top section forms a smart finish. This design is lovely for broadcloth or serge, with matching satin for trimming, and nice for velvet combined with taffeta. Garhaine, voile, poplin, repp, taffeta, woolen mixtures, checked and plaid suitings are also nice for it. The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 16, 18 and 20 years. Size 16 will require 6 1/2 yards of 36 inch material. The skirt measures about 2 1/2 yards at the foot.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state size wanted.

WONDERFULLY GREAT CIGARETTES

BETTER TOBACCO MADE THEM FAMOUS

Why do we use better tobacco without raising the price?

Because we knew the smokers in America were ready and waiting for a higher grade 5 Cent cigarette.

We knew our facilities for manufacturing fine cigarettes gave us an advantage over other manufacturers.

The result is ZIRA—the cigarette for which thousands of smokers have forsaken more expensive brands.

The Mildest cigarette.
